WHAT IS TEE?
TEE (Transatlantic Partnership for Excellence in Engineering) is funded with support of the Erasmus Mundus – Action 2 Programme of the European Commission. The main objective of the TEE Partnership is to encourage structured cooperation between European, US and Canadian Higher Education Institutions. To achieve this goal, TEE offers a mobility scheme for doctoral students, post-doctoral researchers and academic staff.

SCHOLARSHIPS
TEE offers 68 scholarships which cover travel expenses, academic fees (if applicable) and health insurance, plus a monthly allowance.

Scholarships available from USA and Canada to Europe:

WHO CAN APPLY?
TEE scholarships are aimed at students, researchers, and staff who are nationals from USA, Canada and Europe and who are enrolled (or are working, in the case of staff grants) at a TEE Partner University.

Please take into account the following specific requirements:

- For doctorate mobility, the candidate must have obtained a second higher education degree (e.g. Master’s degree) and must be currently registered in a doctoral programme in a Partner University.

- For post-doctorate mobility, the candidate must have obtained a doctorate degree in the last two years and must have the support of a Partner University to carry out post-doctorate mobility.

The mobility can only take place from USA or Canada to Europe and from Europe to USA or Canada (e.g. candidates from USA cannot apply for a scholarship to undertake doctoral studies at a Canadian Partner University).

FIELDS OF STUDY COVERED BY TEE

- Sciences and Technology

* Please check the Project’s website to see the different academic programmes offered by Partner Universities.

CALL FOR APPLICATIONS
TEE involves two different cohorts, each one with an independent call for proposals. The call for applications corresponding to the first cohort will open by December 2011, and the call for applications corresponding to the second cohort is expected to open by the end of 2012.

The 68 scholarships offered by TEE will be divided as follows:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Type of mobility</th>
<th>From USA: Scholarships available</th>
<th>From Canada: Scholarships available</th>
<th>From Europe: Scholarships available</th>
</tr>
